

Cigna Expands COVID-19 Coverage Making Care Simple, More Affordable

Cigna waiving customer cost-sharing and co-payments for COVID-19 treatment

As the COVID-19 pandemic continues to make a deeper impact across the United States, Cigna is taking another step forward to deliver access to simple, affordable and predictable health care.

Effective immediately, Cigna will waive customer cost-sharing and co-payments for COVID-19-related treatment through May 31, 2020.

Combined with waiving the cost share of the COVID-19 office visit, virtual care, and testing, Cigna has made it easier for customers to seek medical care when they need it. Stopping this virus requires everyone to work together.

We ask for your partnership. As an Administrative Services Only, self-funded plan client, we recognize you may need some time to assess this change within your organization and in consultation with your Cigna representative.

If you feel your company must opt out of these expanded benefits, please confirm to us by April 10, 2020. For your convenience, we've included an automated form at the link below:

Opt Out Form

Once you fill out the form and submit electronically, a confirmation email will be sent to the email address provided.

We are encouraging widespread participation. This will further our collective goal of containing the pandemic by helping to eliminate any potential financial barrier to seeking medical treatment for COVID-19 symptoms.

If you have any questions, please do not hesitate to contact your Cigna representative.
